Agenda

Thursday, December 7, 2017

A. ROLL CALL

B. Presentation of revised design proposal for the new Civic Center - from Chief Building Official/City Architect Collier

On September 19, 2017, Heller Manus Architects, the architects for the new Civic Center, presented their first interpretation of the design for the new Civic Center buildings which includes the: City Hall, Library, Police Department, and the remodeled existing library. Input was provided by City Council and community. Subsequent to the City Council work session, the various departments that will be housed in the new buildings provided further clarification on their space needs. The architect has taken all of this information and further developed the plan and architectural vision for the Civic Center which will be presented in this second of three planned work sessions.
